WIT AND HUMOR.

"Do you believe that the rain falls alike on the just and the unjust?"

Ethel—If you don't believe in early marriages, mamma, why did you and papa marry so very young?

Mistress—It appears to me that you are entertaining a good many male callers in the kitchen...

Judge, to prisoner—Did you really call this gentleman an old fool last night?

Said a sharp attorney to a rambling witness—"Now you must give explicit and exact answers...

Butler—There's a man below to see you, sir. Mayberry—What did you tell him?

Tommy—Paw, I read that a man can stop chewing tobacco by eating candy...

GRAINS OF GOLD.

"Too many folks are fine talk and bad work."

The richest people are those who have the fewest wants.

No man is fit to lead who has not the courage to stand alone.

Don't be afraid to do your duty, no matter who throws mud at you.

Crime succeeds by sudden dispatch; honest counsels gain vigor by delay.

The right side is always the strongest side, no matter how weak it looks.

If you want your children to be good it would be well to show them how to begin with.

About the only time some people speak well of other people, is after they are dead and buried.

Patience is the ballast of the soul that will keep it from rolling and tumbling in the great storm.

It may be that the rich man is foremost had a great many nice things said about him on his tombstone.

There is a transcendent power in example. We reform others unconsciously when we walk uprightly.

It is not the troubles of today, but those of tomorrow, the next week, and next year that wrinkle our heads and wrinkle our faces.

It will help us to accomplish great feats and win great victories, to remember that all we have to do is to take our duties as they come and perform them faithfully.

THE LENGTH OF ENGAGEMENT.

A Year Is Not Too Long Under Any Circumstances.

The fashion which announces an engagement one week and issues invitations for the wedding the next is not always the safest and best plan...

It may be old-fashioned to argue in favor of at least a two-month engagement, yet it is far more practical than the short time that is now considered to be the correct thing...

How can a woman accumulate all the hundred and one little pretty things that do so much toward making home lovely and which need hours of hard work to prepare if she steps from the school room to the altar with only a long enough interval between to get her trousseau ready?

The short engagement is not to be commended, neither is its opposite, the long weary years of waiting for the white letter, but the happy mean, the year of acquaintance, is certainly little enough time for that blissful period of happiness that is never again duplicated.
